PAUL S. BECKERS TO LEAD UNUSUAL CARAVAN DOWN PAN-AMERICAN HIGHWAY TO GUATEMALA

A journey by school bus, auto and railroad flat car will climax the two-months vacation which Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Becker of Guatemala have been spending in Campbell. The former Campbell residents will leave for the Central American country on December 26, taking with them six teachers, the new bus and the car which they purchased during their vacation.

Mr. Becker, former manager of the Pan-American Hotel, one of the finest in Guatemala City, has been appointed to the position of administrator of a private school in Guatemala. Ninety percent of the school's 480-pupil enrollment are Guatemalans who are being prepared for higher education in Europe or the United States. Thus, fifty percent of the instruction is given in Spanish and 50 percent in English. Boarding facilities are provided for the pupils who come from all parts of the country. Pupils pay tuition and the parents support the school through purchase of school books.

New Campus
"Although the school itself is eight years old, it will be in new buildings on a beautiful 17-acre campus this year. The campus is a delightful place with a stream, woods and swimming pool," commented the administrator.

Mr. Becker is well prepared for his role of school administrator, having been principal of Campbell Grammar School under the late Ira R. Abbott, former district superintendent.

His background as a teacher and principal evidently provided the foundation for a flexible career in a number of fields. During the four and one-half years Mr. and Mrs. Becker have lived in Guatemala. The enterprising educator conducted a radio program for three years, partly overlapping his two years as manager of the hotel.

Foreigners Unharmed
Asked about the reported revolutions in Guatemala, Mr. Becker stated quite frankly that "foreign residents are not harmed during these brief disturbances. The foreign population takes no part in the politics of the country. When the shooting starts we bar up the doors and go to work on our 'revolution rations' of which every family keeps a stock. The revolutions seldom last more than two or three days."

Internal disturbances in the country consist of more than revolutions, for there are several volcanoes which provide occasional startling displays of fireworks. Six months ago Fuego, one of the three volcanoes which appear to be right at the edge of the Guatemala City airport, went into action, sending forth rivers of lava, and gushing smoke and steam. For two days and a night the action continued, and the boiling lava set ablaze the fields and woods outside the city. Clouds of ashes blew over the city but its residents and the buildings suffered no harm.

Mr. Becker and a friend own a plane which they took up early one morning for a looksee at the volcano in eruption. They flew in close and were able to record on film several magnificent shots of the display.

Europe To Guatemala
The former Campbell resident's career in Central America actually began in Europe during the last war. A fellow serviceman who was from Guatemala described the country in such glowing terms that "I decided that was for me."

Has he regretted his decision or found it to be less than his friend advertised?

"No. The climate is perfect and it is a lovely place to live. The people are very kind and congenial to live with. We do miss our friends here though, especially all the Footlighters crowd we used to go around with."

"Some of the Footlighters, Mr. and Mrs. Budd Levenberg and Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Lanphear, visited us in Guatemala and they have been our hosts during our current vacation."

Purpose of that new school bus, which will be the seventh in the Guatemalan school's fleet, was one of the purposes of the vacation trip, as was the new car. When Mr. and Mrs. Becker and their son, Bucky, three and one-half years old, set off with the six teachers on the return trip next Tuesday, they will head down the Pan-American highway, with various members of the caravan party taking turns driving the two vehicles.

Five hundred miles south of Mexico City, the highway stops, and bus, car, and nine persons will be loaded on a railroad flatcar. There they will spend two days and a night, staying right in the bus and auto which will carry ample supplies of food and water. The railroad car will carry them over the uncompleted portion of the highway, and link them up with the highway where it begins again at Tapachula, on the Mexico-Guatemala border. At Tapachula the party will unload and drive on to Guatemala City, their speed on this last leg of the journey being governed by the weather conditions.

To readers planning to travel the Pan-American highway, Mr. Becker offered news that the highway will be completed straight through to Guatemala in six months. "That's the official word."

Annual Jr. C of C Children's Party Nets Needy's Food

Local children were once again treated to a free show and ice cream Wednesday afternoon at the Campbell theatre, by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. This has become an annual event and is looked forward to eagerly by them as Christmas draws near. Entrance to the theatre is gained by presenting a can of food which later will be donated to some needy family for the holiday.

Christmas baskets were packed at the business meeting held by the Jaycees Wednesday evening. Food used was derived chiefly from the annual children's party and donations of the members of the Jr. C. of C.

Baskets this year will be distributed by the Salvation army. The Junior Chamber expressed themselves as being very proud and thankful for the many toys donated to them by the Cambrian Cub Scouts and also the baskets this year will each have an extra gift from the Rebekah Lodge.

CAMBRIAN DISTRICT BOND ACCEPTANCE ELECTION SCHEDULED FOR JANUARY 4

Planners Deny Severe Rezoning On Winchester Rd.

County Planning Commissioners denied petition of Antonio and Theresa Severo for a commercial zoning on the northwest side of Winchester Road, 1300 feet south of Budd Avenue, following second public hearing Wednesday afternoon. Commissioners said no necessity was shown and rezoning would not convenience residents of the area now zoned for residential use.

The Severos were represented by Frank Filice. It is expected that he will appeal the decision before the County Board of Supervisors.

Planners acted on request of Cambrian Elementary School District for approval of a 10-acre school site at Foxworthy and Ross Roads.

Public hearing dates were set for January 3 and February 7 on resolutions of intentions of Steve Dorcich and Dan Caputo to rezone to commercial use property on the north side of Stevens Creek Road between Tyler Avenue and Maplewood Avenue, and of Lionel J. Tilson and Philip S. Sanfilippo for commercial zoning on the south side of Foxworthy Avenue between Ross Road and Jarvis Road.

Commissioners approved an 86-lot subdivision tract on the north side of Stevens Creek Road, between Winchester Road and Saratoga Avenue. Petitioner was Dan Caputo.

Pfc. Walter J. Harmon Reported Wounded

Word has been received here that Pfc. Walter J. Harmon, U. S. Marine Corps, has been wounded in Korea. Harmon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Harmon, 55 Gilman Avenue.

Rated as one of the finest groups in this area, the choir has received praise from all who heard and enjoyed their singing.

Street Sweeper and Whiteway Plans To Be Outlined At C of C Board Meet

Chamber of Commerce board members will receive a report on progress of arrangements for street sweeper operations in Campbell when they convene next January 8. In addition, plans may be completed for the report on establishment of a "whiteway" on Campbell Avenue and Winchester Road. Leonard Cronkrite of the PG&E is preparing the costs and recommendations outline.

Midnight Candle Service At Cong'l. Church Sunday

The usual Christmas eve service of carols and candle-lighting will be held at the Congregational Church of Campbell Sunday, December 24 from 11 p. m. to midnight.

This impressive service has become a tradition in the Congregational Church, and is open to the general public. There will be special music by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Ray Martin, an appropriate Christmas meditation by the minister, the Rev. Corwin H. Olds, and the service will be concluded a few minutes after midnight.

For every dollar Cambrian school district spends, the state will spend $22.50, if district voters give a yes vote at the January 4 bond and apportionment approval election. The district is asked to vote $21,000 in bonds, and the state will supply $475,000, but it is necessary to approve both propositions.

Purpose of the election is to provide funds for the school district which is "bursting out all over." The school district's application for state aid has been approved in the California State Department of Finance and the district is eligible to receive financial assistance in the amount of $475,000 if the voters approve and agree that the district must be bonded to capacity, thus the $21,000 bond issue proposal.

TOMAS ORCHARDS SUBDIVISION OPEN ON DECEMBER 26

San Tomas Orchards subdivision, between Quito Road and Saratoga Avenue, will begin sales of new homes in the tract on December 26 at 4 p. m. Tomas Construction Company is handling construction on the former Mitchell property.

Edward E. Jory, who will be in charge of the construction company sales, said 29 units of the planned 363 homes are nearing completion. Lot sizes are larger than average and homes are offered in 16 different elevations, with a choice of six floor plans, in ranch or bungalow types, some of them with flat tops.

An experienced sales force aided by additional local personnel will show the homes which will all feature hardwood flooring, tile showers and revolvador closets.

Four large construction companies have joined forces in development of the subdivision which will offer homes for the average income group. "This is not a housing project," Jory emphasized. There will be no long streets of identical houses.

The two- and three-bedroom homes will vary in living area size from 820 square feet to 1,129 square feet. Prices range from a minimum $8,350 to $10,750. Some have fireplaces, others do not.

This is reportedly the largest subdivision development ever launched in Santa Clara County.

The money will provide for completion of the master plan of construction at the present Cambrian school and also the erection of a new school on a new site.

Proposed construction would consist of: at the present site on Casey Road and San Jose-Los Gatos highway—construction of 12 new classrooms, these completing the present two wings and adding a third new and complete wing; permitting abandonment of the six barracks buildings classrooms and removal of the old building; construction of two new kindergarten rooms in an area by themselves; construction of a new domestic science room, providing cooking and sewing facilities needed for upper grade girls; construction of a shop room where boys would learn shop practice and techniques; remodeling of a classroom into a library; purchase of an additional three and one-half acres of land for playground and activity space; addition of new playground facilities.

At the Cambrian School Unit Two—construction of six new classrooms—a multi-use room (lunch room, activity all-purpose room), office and heating plant, purchase of ten acres of land for the new school, paving for walks and driveways, playground facilities and improvement, furniture for the new school.

School trustees stressed that the apportionment from the state will not increase taxes. The bonds for the apportionment have already been voted in proposition 1 at the November 1949 election.

EMERGENCY AREA
The state aid plan is designed to assist the impoverished school districts. Cambrian district is classified as an "emergency" area, needing classrooms and facilities. Districts whose bond tax rate is above 40c do not have to pay the state on this apportionment. At the present time the bond tax rate for Cambrian School is 44c, therefore no payments will be due for this apportionment. As long as the bond tax rate remains over 40c no payments will be due.

To be eligible for state funds, the district must be within five percent of its bonding capacity. As a result of the recent increase in valuation of Cambrian School District the $21,000 bond issue became necessary to fulfill this condition. Polls for the special consolidated election on January 4 will be open at the school from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. Voters needing transportation to the polls may call Campbell 3867 and a ride will be arranged.

SERVICE NEWS

Veterans of World War II planning GI Bill education and training were reminded by Veterans Administration today that the July 25, 1951, cut-off date for starting courses is only seven months away.

This coming spring school term will be the final such term most veterans may enter or re-enter before the deadline, VA said, so if they plan to enroll it's not too early to start making arrangements now.

The 1951 deadline applies to most World War II veterans—those discharged from service before July 25, 1947. Those discharged after that date have four years from their discharge date in which to begin.

Veterans actually must have commenced their training by the cut-off date if they want to continue afterwards. A veteran must be in training on that date unless he has temporarily interrupted his course for summer vacation or for other reasons beyond his control.

Once he completes or discontinues his course of GI Bill training after the deadline, he may not start another course. Also, he must meet the following two post-deadline requirements:

He will be expected to pursue his training "continuously until completion, except for conditions which normally would cause interruption by any student."

And he may change his educational objective "only while in training and then for reasons satisfactory to the Administrator." Public Law 610, which permits a veteran to make a first change of general fields of study merely by applying or it, will not be in effect after the cut-off date, VA said.

Special consideration will be given to four categories of veteran-trainees who, for reasons beyond their control, either may not be able to resume their training by July 25, 1951, or may not be in a position to remain in continuous training afterwards.

The categories are (1) veterans who have started GI Bill studies and interrupt them to go back into active military or naval service; (2) veterans who completed pre-medical and pre-dental schooling and can't get into a medical or dental school by deadline time; (3) teachers who spend their summers taking training leading to a degree, and (4) those who complete GI Bill undergraduate courses and intend to go ahead with graduate training which would start after the deadline date.

Those who had to stop training in order to return to active duty will be permitted to resume their training within a "reasonable period" following their release from service, even though they get out after the deadline date.

They must meet these two requirements: the conduct and progress of their GI Bill course must have been satisfactory, and the period of training obtainable after they get out of uniform will be limited to their remaining GI Bill entitlement.

Veterans who have taken GI Bill pre-medical or pre-medical courses but have not yet gained admittance to medical or dental schools, will be permitted to start medical or dental training whenever an accredited school has room for them—even if it's after the cut-off date.

They must, however, establish the fact that they applied for admission each year after completing their GI Bill preliminary training. The special provision applies regardless of whether a veteran's pre-medical or pre-dental studies end before or after July 25, 1951.

Ex-servicemen and women in the third category—teachers who take GI Bill graduate courses during succeeding summer vacations —may continue to do so after the 1951 cut-off date.

A teacher will have to meet certain qualifications. His study must lead toward a degree; he must be continuously employed as a school teacher the rest of the year, and he may not skip any GI Bill summer sessions.

Summer training by teachers for the purpose of getting a degree is a "long recognized practice" of the profession, VA pointed out. Because of the Veteran-teacher's "unique" position, VA said it will consider him to be in "continuous pursuit of his course . . . within the meaning of the governing law and regula-of receiving a degree.

The final category consists of veterans who finish GI Bill undergraduate courses and intend to go ahead with graduate training which would start after the deadline date.

VA regulations provide they may do so, as long as they file an application for their advanced training sometime before they

Make Your Own Christmas Gifts!

The real spirit of Christmas isn't spending money for elaborate gifts, but rather giving something of one's self. And no present means more to the recipient than that which reflects a good cook's handiwork. Here are two thoughtful ideas from Florida that illustrate home-made Christmas gifts right down to the tinsel and the wrappings.

Florida Marmalade

1 large Florida grapefruit
2 large Florida oranges
Water
Sugar (about 6 cups)
Cut Florida grapefruit and orange peel in eight lengthwise sections. Remove peel; cut into thin strips. Cover peel with water; boil 5 minutes. Drain; repeat process twice. Dice pulp, discarding core and seeds. Combine pulp with drained peel; measure. Add twice that amount of water; bring to a boil and cook rapidly 30 minutes. Measure; add an equal amount of sugar for each cup of pulp. Bring to boiling point, stirring constantly, until sugar is dissolved. Cook mixture rapidly, stirring frequently to prevent scorching, until thick and clear, about 25 minutes; pour into hot sterilized glasses. Seal with hot paraffin immediately. YIELD: 10 6-ounce glasses.

Florida Orange Bread

1/2 cup Florida orange rind (3 Florida oranges)
3/4 cup sugar
3/4 cup water
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 cup Florida orange juice
1 egg, well beaten
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
3/4 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup chopped pecans
Wash oranges; dry. Remove the thin orange rind with a sharp knife, cutting around the orange; cut rind into very thin slivers with scissors. Combine sugar and water; add the rind; stir constantly over heat until the sugar is dissolved; cook slowly about 5 minutes. (The peel and syrup should measure 2/3 cup.) Add butter; stir until melted; add orange juice and beaten egg. Sift together into mixing bowl, flour, baking powder, soda and salt. Mix in pecans. Add orange mixture and mix just enough to moisten ingredients. (Batter should be lumpy.) Turn into greased loaf pan 9 1/2 x 4 1/2 x 3 inches. Bake in slow oven (325°F.) for 1 hour and 15 minutes, or until done. Turn out on rack to cool. YIELD: 1 loaf.

work. They also must meet two other requirements. They must start the additional training at the end of their summer vacation period, and the graduate course must be a "normal progression" of previous studies.

A veteran who receives his A.B. degree in business administration in June, 1951, for example, could start work on his master's degree—that September, if he applied to VA in time.

This ruling also pertains to those who finish undergraduate studies at the end of their vacation period.

VA emphasized that most veterans may not receive training after July 25, 1956, the wind-up date of the program.

The only exception consists of those who enlisted or re-enlisted between October 6, 1945, and October 5, 1946, under the Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act. These veterans have four years from the end of their enlistment or reenlistment period in which to begin GI Bill training, and nine years from the end of that period in which to finish.

Watchtower Corp. obtains writ in Church Battle

Santa Clara Supervisors and Planning Commissioners were directed Tuesday to reconsider their actions denying San Jose Watchtower Corporation a permit to erect a cottage-type church at Stevens Creek Road and Tyler Avenue.

The order was contained in a writ of mandate issued by Superior Judge William F. James and directed to the two county boards.

Watchtower Corporation, otherwise known as Jehovah's Witnesses, charges action of supervisors and planners was a violation of freedom of religious worship.

Home owners in the subdivision where the church would be located, objected to the church plans and claimed deed restrictions prevented church edifice erection there.

Deputy County Counsel Harry A. Nail asked that the writ be remanded to the Planning Commission, charging the board had acted without authority in denying the church permit.

Larry Lucas On 4-H Dance Committee

Larry Lucas of Cambrian 4-H Club has been appointed to a committee to plan the annual 4-H Council dance. This is the council's only money-raising activity during the year.

Serving with him are Walter Melott of Almaden, Elsie Scott of San Martin, Lloyd Rodoni of Foot-hill, Mrs. W. F. Sproul of Oak Hill and George Shambrook, farm advisor.

DeMolay Old Timer Event Celebrates 25th Annual Gathering and Party

This year the De Molay Old Timer's have a two-fold purpose in holding their Annual Banquet. This year besides welcoming old friends from all over the country, the group will celebrate the fact that the gala annual event has reached its quarter century mark.

The banquet is sponsored by the San Jose Chapter, Order of De Molay and will be held on Wednesday, December 27 at 6:30 p. m. at the Scottish Rite Temple at 3rd and St. James Streets in San Jose, California.

Now in its second year is the association formed to welcome all old De Molays from out of state chapters as well as local representatives. This association was founded to be of aid to past and present De Molays, and a loan fund was set up to accommodate students or old timers who were in need of financial aid.

The turnout at the banquet last year brought members from all over the United States with visitors from as far as Mother Chapter in Kansas City, Mo.

Mancuso Files Suit For $250,000 In Accident Case

Angelo G. Mancuso, 29, of 730 Fewtrell Drive, Campbell, has filed suit for $250,000 in San Mateo County against drivers of four vehicles involved in a December 7 Bayshore Highway crash in which he suffered a broken leg. The suit is one of the largest such actions ever filed in San Mateo county.

Mancuso was trapped in his car for over half an hour in the crash at Bayshore and Bell Street, Redwood City. He charges the four other drivers with negligence and states all their vehicles struck his car. In addition he names as defendants 24 "John Does," officers of the various firms involved.

Named in the suit are James Hartless, 27, San Francisco, driver of a Borden ice cream truck, and a half dozen Borden Co. subsidiaries; John R. Caselli, 32, 1025 Fourth Avenue, San Mateo; and the E. T. Haas Co., Belmont; Peter W. McDonald, 23, San Francisco and the Lutzus Tile Company; Margaret A. Colburn, 28, 1148 Bayshore Highway, East Palo Alto, and the Lenkurt Electrical Company.

Service Club Sets January 24 Date For Guest Tea

Miss Ruby Howes was hostess at her home Wednesday afternoon for the monthly meeting of the Campbell Women's Service Club. She was assisted by Mrs. Everett Nelson, Mrs. R. J. Flagg and Mrs. W. E. Runge.

The program consisted of piano selections played by Mrs. B. C. Clark, and an address, "Christmas Meditations", by Mrs. E. R. Kennedy, who spoke in observance of the close of the club's twenty-first year.

Mrs. Frank Richardson, president, conducted the business meeting at which plans were made for a Guest Day Tea in the Country Women's clubhouse on January 24, in celebration of the organization's 21st birthday.

Following the meeting members, under direction of Mrs. Harold Drummond and Mrs. Everett Nelson, packed Christmas baskets to be distributed in this community.

Clara H. Brass Piano Pupils Present Recital

Pupils of Clara Huber Brass presented a piano recital at her home in San Jose on December 10.

Performances were given by Jacqueline Jansen, Marilyn Ott, Joanne Ott and Charlotte Huber of Campbell and Sylvia Woodhey, Margaret Rehm and Eleanor Post of San Jose.

After the program Mr. Carl Lindstrom, violinist and teacher from Los Gatos, and Miss Patricia Schommer, soprano from San Jose, each contributed several numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Brass.

Measles, Tuberculosis Reported In Campbell

One case of measles and one case of tuberculosis were reported in Campbell for the week ending December 9, according to the Santa Clara County Health Department. Two other TB cases were reported, one in Gilroy and the other in Milpitas. Three other measles cases were listed, two for Santa Clara and one for Los Altos.

Sunday morning Christmas program will be held in the department of mechanical guides to assist actors on and off the stage. Newspaper critics gave the play inspiring reviews.

Since then the play has been given some 30 performances in the Bay Area and the Guild was invited to compete against sighted casts in the annual theatrical contest of the San Francisco Press Club. The guild appeared recently in Reno, Nevada, for four performances at the Reno Civic Auditorium. As a result of their outstanding success in Nevada, the guild was extended a standing invitation to make a yearly appearance in Reno.

Aims and purpose of the newly chartered non-profit corporation are: to bring economic security to talented blind people, to increase the understanding between the sighted and the blind, making each more aware of the other, and to increase the respect of the sighted for the ability of the blind, whether that talent be dramatic or otherwise.

Footlighters Attend Show By Blind Actor Guild

Nine members of the Campbell Footlighters attended a performance of the Blind Actors' Guild in San Francisco Sunday evening. The guild's presentation was Jerome K. Jerome's "Passing of the Third Floor Back," given at the Curran Theater.

Those from here were Mr. and Mrs. Les Ackerman, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Legg, Mr. and Mrs. Budd Levenberg, Mrs. Charles Parsons, sister of Mr. Levenberg, Miss Genevieve Schneider and Mr. Phil Cosentino.

Mr. Levenberg said the play was exceptionally well done and declared himself amazed at the ability of the blind performers to move across the stage, meet and greet each other, and to carry on like seasoned troupers without a misstep.

The Blind Actors' Guild came into being on Easter Sunday, 1950, when the curtain rose on the first performance of the Jerome opus. This was the first time in San Francisco that the visually handicapped had been able to present a full-length play without the use of mechanical guides to assist actors on and off the stage. Newspaper critics gave the play inspiring reviews.

Democracy May Have Originated From Early-Day Customs

Have you ever wondered how or why we have certain traditions at Christmas time? Why we celebrate "Open House," where the idea of the Christmas Play came from, why we embrace under a sprig of mistletoe, or even why Santa Claus is always fat?

OPEN HOUSE

It seems that the great halls of the old Saxon lords were thrown open at Christmastide, to peasant and noble alike. Democratically they all mingled together and exchanged gifts. An atmosphere of hearty cheer prevailed during the Great Feast, which was followed by festivities of dance and song.

The yule log was dragged into the hall, accompanied by a tremendous burst of shouting, and it was placed upon the open fire pit. The festivities lasted until the log burned to ashes.

In the Old South this tradition was carried along by the Negro slaves. They craftily soaked their log in the cypress swamps to extend their Christmas freedom.

These examples of friendship between lord and serf have now come to us in the form of the hospitality "Open House."

MISTLETOE
Mistletoe, that strange growth, why do we drape it around the house during the holiday season? We can blame it all on to the ancient Druids, a people who lived in Britain and Gaul even before the birth of Christ.

Mystic ceremonies were practiced by the Druids deep in the great forests of Cannock. Atop giant oaks they found this strange plant which gets its food from the air.

They felt that the mistletoe was heaven-sent, designating purity and love. During their solemn ceremonial rite they cut the Mistletoe with a golden knife.

And now, when we gather for our holiday festivities, for some unknown reason, young and old alike stand underneath the mistletoe, unknowingly following a tradition.

THIN SANTA
We can blame it all upon Clement Moore who wrote the famous poem—"The Night Before Christmas." He made Santa Claus fat, and he has been chubby ever since.

The illustrator drew the pictures of the eight tiny reindeer, no bigger than mice, and for the first time Santa Claus had a "broad face and a little round belly, that shook when he laughed like a bowlful of jelly."

Early Policies of Rotary Described

Early policies of Rotary were described by Henry "Bru" Brunner Monday noon before a capacity attendance of 68 Rotarians at the Campbell Club's session.

District Governor William E. Williams introduced the speaker who spoke on "My Romance in Rotary." Brunner, charter member of the second Rotary Club formed in this country, San Francisco No. Two, which was organized in 1908, said early day policy of Rotarians was to help each other by buying from and patronizing fellow members. He exhibited a weekly bulletin of those days in which Rotarians reported total amounts of business received from fellow Rotarians.

DO YOU KNOW?

That, 4 percent of drivers account for approximately 36 percent of ALL Automobile Accidents? That, the REPEATERS who have had FOUR previous accidents, are SEVEN times as likely to have another as YOU who have had none.

SARATOGANS VISIT IN CAMPBELL

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gilligan of Saratoga will spend Christmas with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon R. James of Los Gatos. The whole family will gather at the James home on Christmas Eve, then return Christmas morning for the tree and dinner. There will be Mr. and Mrs. Gilligan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beck and four children from Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Beck of Campbell, William James, home from Nevada State University at Reno, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert James who will come up from Pomona.

Since its inception thirteen years ago, this organization has cared for more than 60,000 children. It is now operating in Belgium, England, France, Greece, Holland, Italy and China, and is helping children of fourteen different nationalities, without regard to race or creed.

FINANCIAL AID

Foster Parents' Plan for War Children does not do mass relief, each child is treated as an individual. "Adoption" is financial, and carries with it no legal obligations. The foster parent merely promises to contribute $15 monthly toward the child's support, for at least a year. In return, the foster parent receives a photograph and brief history of the child, and correspondence through the Plan Office is encouraged.

Meet our snowman...

He helps develop your State's resources!

A lot of your next year's electricity and water supply are now shining snow packs high in the Sierra. Each year we send men by ski or helicopter to measure the water content of these packs so we can determine the reserve as a guide to control of the runoff in some 122 P.G. and E. lakes and reservoirs and 779 miles of canals. By this means we conserve every drop possible. This water supplies you and some 24 million other P.G. and E. customers with electricity. But that is only part of the job. For we send this snow water along undiminished to the farms and orchards, homes and towns, and cities and industries where it contributes to the health and wealth of the State. Now we'd like you to meet some folks who benefit by P.G. and E.'s development of the State's resources...

P.G. and E.
PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

Meet John C. Gilbert, who operates a machine shop in Oroville. To merchants and businessmen like Gilbert, and folks who work nearby, P.G. and E.'s investment of over $100,000,000 in the Oroville and Feather River areas, and its annual payroll of over $550,000 have meant better living and a more prosperous community. And, incidentally, almost 20% of Butte County's annual property tax bill is paid by P.G. and E.

Meet Russell Keene, our snowman. Russ and other hydrographers go annually into the snow country to measure the pack. Russ plunges a 20-foot aluminum tube into the snow, then weighs it to determine the water content of the snow. From these measurements our hydro-engineers can estimate within 10% how much water will be available after the Spring thaws. Russ works out of Fresno. He was a ski-trooper in the last war, has been with us 5 years. In the background is one of the helicopters that can, in a matter of hours, land a snowman in rugged country that would take weeks to reach on skis.

Here are Ernest Blaser and son, of Live Oak. Like some 50,000 other ranchers in our territory, the Blasers depend upon electric pumping for irrigation. Irrigation is in large part responsible for California farmers' annual income of around 2 billion dollars. Yet P.G. and E. power for farm pumping averages only 3.5% of crop production cost. Thus does P.G. and E. help develop the State's agricultural resources.

CHRISTMAS IN CALIFORNIA

Across the verdant valleys,
We hear the joy bells ring,
Telling, under azure skies,
Of the birthday of a King.

The roses shed their perfume,
The glad birds sing above,
Tales of the infant Jesus,
And the Father's priceless love.

The sunshine fills our valleys,
Our hearts, with joy are stirred,
As we hear the Christmas carols,
Sweetest music ever heard.

The age-old message fills our hearts,
Of peace on earth—good will to all,
We give, and share, on this glad day,
And sharing, heed the Father's call.

—Clara Beebe Baldwin.

May this Christmas be bright and inspiring for you and yours as the Christmas star of old.

Is There A Santa Claus?

This Christmas time, as has become the pleasant tradition of this newspaper, the publishers again present for their readers a story of Christmas. Though written only 53 years ago, it has taken its deserved place among the wealth of long told tales of this season.

Herewith, then, our Christmas story, for 1950.

An Editorial by Francis P. Church
(Reprinted from the New York Sun, Sept. 21, 1897)

"We take pleasure in answering at once and thus prominently the communication below, expressing at the same time our great gratification that its faithful author is numbered among the friends of The Sun:

"Dear Editor — I am 8 years old.

"Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus.

"Papa says 'If you see it in THE SUN it's so.'

"Please tell me the truth, is there a Santa Claus?"

"Virginia O'Hanlon."

115 West 95th St., New York City.

Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's, are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth and knowledge.

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! How dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders there are unseen and unseeable in the world.

You tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernal beauty and glory beyond. Is it all real? Ah, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus! Thank God he lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

The FARMERS CORNER
by Ralph H. Taylor
Executive Secretary
Agricultural Council of California

THE WELFARE INTERNAL
Out of the recent national meeting of the Illuminating Engineering Society at Pasadena has come news of interesting developments on two "war fronts" on which mankind has been engaged since the dawn of history. And, as with all developments in warfare, the news is of new and improved weapons of combat.

MANKIND VS. THE INSECTS
Up to perhaps a quarter of a century ago, educated thinkers seriously regarded the insects of this planet as formidable contenders with the human race for survival on earth. But that was before the amazing developments in chemistry that made possible our modern and more effective methods of pest control.

No one worries nowadays that the insect world is actually going to kill off man as a species. Still—as every farmer knows—insects remain a vexatious if not a lethal foe. They cause billions in damage to agricultural products, and their retreat before the weapons of chemistry and other sciences is slow and stubborn.

The new weapon against them, announced at the meeting by Joe P. Ditchman, farm lighting engineer for General Electric, is called invisible or "black" light. Mr. Ditchman said experiments have shown that "black" light is extremely attractive to insects at night, and that traps baited, so to speak, with "black" light are being used to make a census of nocturnal pests toward planning more effective control measures.

CALIFORNIA SPEAKS

Statements By Interesting Californians

EUSTACE W. CULLINAN, S.F. atty. on low bar exam. standards —"California has kept its legal standards low for years waiting for an Abraham Lincoln. So far he hasn't showed up."

JUDGE A. F. BRAY, S. F., on high bar exam. standards—"The present rule of accreditation tends to limit the bar to Phi Beta Kappas—and may the Lord help us if all lawyers are Phi Betas."

MARINA BERTI, Hollywood actress on divorce—"It is better to keep the man you have and profit from the time and trouble you have spent on him."

GOV. J. BRACKEN LEE, Utah, in Calif.—"The Administration, withholding the truth on both foreign and domestic matters, has treated the American people as a mass of ignorant peasants."

announced at the meeting by Joe P. Ditchman, farm lighting engineer for General Electric, is called invisible or "black" light. Mr. Ditchman said experiments have shown that "black" light is extremely attractive to insects at night, and that traps baited, so to speak, with "black" light are being used to make a census of nocturnal pests toward planning more effective control measures.

MANKIND VS. HUNGER
Mr. Ditchman further reported that a wide variety of new incandescent and fluorescent light sources will in the future make the farmer less and less dependent upon sunlight and more independent of climatic conditions generally.

"Plants", he said, "may be grown successfully underground in a completely artificial environment of light, humidity, temperature, and even air. They appear to depend more upon successive rhythmic occurrences of light and dark periods than upon light intensity in the stimulation of flowering and fruiting."

Other experiments in radiant energy (light) have shown that it may be used to increase egg production and favorably affect the fertility of dairy cattle, according to this expert.

"Our world," he concluded, "may in the future depend very much upon how well we learn to apply radiant energy to produce more and better food and, also, to reduce the number of our own plant and insect enemies."

In this period of history, when millions of people around the world are hungry, and there is not nearly enough food for all even if it were possible to distribute the supply evenly, every step that science can take toward those objectives is an important step indeed.

Decoration Suggestions Are Given To Brighten Home During Yule

There are only a few more days until old Santa Claus himself will be here, but there is still time for Mrs. Citizen to complete her decoration of her home until it literally glows with the true spirit of the season.

Probably the most effective way to add a sincere touch is to

Scout Troop 31 Receives Charter

Members of Boy Scout Troop 31, sponsored by the First Congregational Church of Campbell, attended the Sunday morning services on December 10.

They were presented with their charter by Milton Ryder, commissioner for Santa Clara Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The troop, newly reorganized, is off to an excellent start with Harding Smith as Scoutmaster; Douglas Hamilton, assistant scoutmaster; Robert Beck, institutional representative, and the troop committee consisting of Floyd Munson, Howard Keech, Harry Smith, Vernon Lunt, Robert Ledum, Lauren Locke and Emmet Farnham.

More About Street Sweeper

Chandler also gave representatives permission to use certain county-owned lands in this area for dumping of the sweeper refuse, thus saving cost of hauling the refuse to a San Jose dump.

In outlining plans for the coming board meeting, Reese referred to complaints about street lights and decorations for the Christmas season. He explained that about $2000 worth of holiday lighting fixtures are on hand and could be installed if it were possible to conform to regulations of the telephone company and the California Highway Patrol.

"Unfortunately," he said,

"there are no adequate facilities for erection of those extra fixtures. We need taller poles and more poles. The PT&T will not permit installation of light strings where they might blow down and contact electric wires crossing the street. The phone men will not go up a pole where there is a possibility of a hot wire or a short."

Next regular meeting of the chamber will be on January 17. Two new members have been welcomed by the organization: the Campbell Five and Dime, represented by Robert Seligson, and the Campbell Furniture and Appliance, represented by Leonard Estenson, Harold Estenson and Jack Marsh.

Professional Planners Offer Answer To Bay Area Population Problem In Large Exhibit At Civic Auditorium

Heralding the turn of the year and the start of a new decade, a spectacular exhibit prepared by professional planners and offering an answer on what should be done to prepare for the anticipated million additional residents which the Bay Area must absorb by 1960 may be seen daily through Dec. 27 in Room B of the San Jose Civic Auditorium. The hours are 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. every day except Christmas when the auditorium will be closed.

The exhibit, which recommends a regional solution for the Bay Area's problem due to rapid growth, among other things deals with transportation and depicts a rapid transit system skirting both sides of the bay and linking San Jose with San Francisco and Oakland.

Prepared by the northern California Telesis group of planners and architects at a cost of $10,000, the exhibit's San Jose showing is sponsored by the staff of the Santa Clara County Planning Commission and was timed to open as a feature of the annual convention of California Chapter, American Institute of Planners, held Dec. 16 in San Jose.

The Santa Clara Valley's bugaboo of how to get an abundant and long-range water supply is another of the problems dealt with by the exhibit. Although regional in viewpoint, the display shows the San Jose metropolitan area on an equal footing with the larger centers.

Shown with the three-dimensional exhibit are some colorful maps prepared by the Santa Clara County Commission staff under the direction of Nestor Barrett, director-secretary. The county display is entitled "Trends," and features a large map which with vivid color patterns shows all of the existing land uses throughout the county. Two other striking maps show the steps of expansion for the county's various cities since 1850. These maps constitute the basic studies for an over-all master plan for growth of Santa Clara County.

The Telesis group, which open the Bible to one of the Gospel revelations of the story of the birth of Christ and read it. The Bible can then be laid on an end table, or better yet, on the coffee table. What better decoration could find its way into any American home than the open Bible in this solemn season?

Anyone who has a fireplace is one of the more fortunate ones, for many clever arrangements can be made on the mantel or on either side of the hearth. Large, green branches of evergreens can flank the opening with Christmas berries laid in the foreground and pine cones placed in artistic mannerisms in little nests in the midst. Atop the mantle, a snow scene can be made to delight all the youngsters who live in that home or who come to call. Cotton and angel's hair make an excellent covering to start with. Books or bricks can be placed in various places beneath to give the effect of hillsides. Then, candle Santa Claus', angels, and trees, and also church steeples, can be arranged in any way to suit one's taste.

The front door should, by all means, have a grand decoration to welcome those holiday guests and friend husband. Wreaths and bright ribbon bows stand out in an inviting way. Inside, mirrors can be topped with green branches and cotton spotted over it to give the effect of real, honest-to-goodness snow.

Any convenient arch-way is a perfect place for the traditional mistletoe. All guests love the merriment of this friendly and "thoughtful" little addition to the decorations of the front room or hall way.

One should never forget that baskets of bright flowers and greenery bring the indoors right into the midst of all the holiday gaiety.

As the final touch to all the Christmas ideas that one can employ, none is as gay or as anticipated as the glorious Christmas tree in all its brilliance and with all the gaily wrapped gifts tumbling from beneath its branches. This year, there is every possible type of wrapping papers and ribbons from which to choose to wrap all the goodies. And for the very tip-top of that tree can go the angel—this always gains the attention of every child as well as grown-up.

So, if you haven't decorated your mantel, fireplace, front door, table, or mirror, there is still time to complete the process now in order to give the right flavor to the already zesty Christmas holiday that is upon us.

primarily is interested in regional planning and research into living conditions, takes its name from the Greek word meaning "progress intelligently planned and directed."

School children of the county and their teachers and parents are especially welcome at the exhibit showing. Barrett has stated. In addition to its central purpose of pointing up the problem of what Bay Area communities, with their facilities already overtaxed by the past decade's heavy influx of people, are going to do with an additional million. The exhibit is educational from a design and pictorial standpoint, Barrett said. The relative locations of the various cities and landmarks are graphically portrayed.

Chambers of commerce, civic groups and public officials also have received special invitations to view the exhibit. However, the general public is very welcome, Barrett stated, and an attendant will be on hand to explain details and answer questions.

KIWANIANS HOSTS TO CHILDREN

Campbell Kiwanians Club turned its meeting over to the children of the members Tuesday noon. The annual children's party featured three short movies for the youngsters and short skits presented by the youngsters. Each member brought a child, and the hall was filled to capacity. C. P. Klassen led the community singing of Christmas carols. Chairman of the day Ross Trowbridge was assisted by the Rev. Denis Kennelly, Kerry Levenberg, Beverly Fish, 4.
